

The Plot (for publicity purposes)

Jim Hawkins, lives with his mum Hilda at Ye Olde Ship Inn in Plymouth but longs for a more adventurous life and the chance to be rich. Hilda tells him about an old treasure map that his father brought back home twenty years ago after a failed attempt to go and find the treasure somewhere on a desert island. Jim is very excited and despite his girlfriend Georgina's protests, decides that he will find a ship and put a crew together and go to Treasure Island.

The ship is captained by Captain Codpiece and the crew includes Jim, Long John Silver and his sidekicks Plank and Anchor. They leave from Plymouth Docks along with Hilda, who rather unexpectedly finds herself going on the trip!

They travel to Treasure Island, but Long John Silver has been planning a mutiny and takes over the ship with the help of the other crew members – the pirates. Silver wants all the treasure for himself. However, there are some unexpected, strange inhabitants on Treasure Island.

Who are these strange inhabitants? Will they find the treasure? Why is the ship's entertainment officer, Sailor Swift organising a singing competition? What will happen to Captain Codpiece, Jim and Hilda? And why does Long John Silver have a seagull on his shoulder? Called Dunk!!

All will be revealed
